Community Services Block Grant (CSBG) Discretionary FY2020 Request for Proposals (RFP)

The State Community Services Office is accepting CSBG Discretionary proposals to support Utah's nine community action agencies through targeted teaching and technical assistance; provision of advocacy on behalf of the community action agencies and their community needs as identified in needs assessments; and the hosting of a poverty conference supporting the community action network as well as other interested stake holders. Expertise is required in the CSBG Act, Organizational Standard, Results Oriented Management and Accountability (ROMA) methodology, tripartite board management, as well as state statute and policies and procedures. ROMA certification is required. Applicant should have good relationships with all nine community action agencies and be willing to travel often to provide this statewide support. Subcontracting of this funding is not permitted.
